

ENGEO Incorporated is a comprehensive provider of geotechnical, environmental, hydrologic, and geologic engineering, and construction testing and inspection services. Founded in 1971, ENGEO is a celebrated, employee-owned firm with seven offices throughout California.

ENGEO is organized into client-based, multi-discipline teams designed to respond to the needs of our public, institutional and private clients. ENGEO provides comprehensive solutions for the myriad of issues faced by our clients with exemplary service and professionalism.

Current Career Opportunities

Special Inspector – San Ramon, San Jose or San Francisco offices

Education/Experience: ACI, ICC reinforced concrete inspector and AWS certification. Pre-stressed concrete, structural steel and welding, structural masonry ICC certification cards a plus; college classes in science or engineering, construction or related field experience preferred. Must have good writing skills and working computer knowledge. Must have good driving record, a dependable truck and be able to transport 50 lbs. on a consistent basis.

Position Summary: With ACI, ICC and AWS certifications, performs field duties which include post-tension and conventional reinforcing steel inspection, concrete placement inspection, masonry inspection, sampling and testing, high-strength bolting and welding inspections done at various project sites. Must use a laptop computer to provide written documentation of test results and observations on a daily basis. Team-player. Good communication skills and excellent client service skills required.

Senior Water Resources Engineer – San Ramon Office

Education/Experience Necessary: M.S. in Water Resources or related field, California PE registration; minimum 3-5 years professional experience in hydrology; experience with HEC-1, HEC-RAS, and HEC-HMS software and AutoCAD 2005 a plus. Candidate must be computer literate, proficient using Microsoft Office products, well organized and have excellent communication and client service skills.

Position Summary: This new position will be responsible for managing large water resources projects, maintaining and enhancing relationships with existing clients and mentoring staff. Candidates should be strong communicators with solid project management skills and have demonstrated experience with Bay Area water resources issues, such as storm water and watershed management, ecosystem and wetland restoration, and water quality.

Project Engineer – San Ramon, Ripon, San Jose and San Francisco Offices

Education/Experience Necessary: M.S. in Geotechnical Engineering; California PE registration; 3-5 years-professional experience; seismic and GIS experience a plus; proficient in AutoCAD and Microsoft Office products.

Position Summary: Design of earth-retaining structures, slope stabilization, remedial grading, landslide mitigation, development of plans and specifications, foundation design, settlement analyses, liquefaction analyses seismic evaluation. Development of geotechnical recommendations for construction for private and public projects. Field work includes exploratory logging, observation of pier and pile installation, and observation of grading operations. On a project-specific, multi-disciplinary basis, perform defined field, analytical, and project administrative responsibilities with regular technical review from project management, particularly focused on non-routine matters. May be assigned increasingly more complex, non-routine tasks with review and oversight from project management. Must have good driving record, excellent writing skills and be able to transport 30 lbs.

Staff Engineer – San Ramon and Ripon Offices

Education/Experience Necessary: M.S. degree in Geotechnical Engineering; 1-3 years-professional/relevant internship experience, E.I.T, Proficient in AutoCAD 2005 and Microsoft Office Products. Seismic and GIS experience a plus.

Position Summary: Design of earth-retaining structures, slope stabilization, remedial grading, landslide mitigation, development of plans and specifications, foundation design, settlement analyses, liquefaction analyses seismic evaluation. Development of geotechnical recommendations for construction for private and public projects. Field work includes exploratory logging, observation of pier and pile installation, and observation of grading operations. On a project specific, multi-disciplined basis, perform well-defined field, analytical, and project administrative responsibilities under close, regular direction from project management. May be assigned increasingly more complex, non-routine tasks with review and oversight from project management. Must have excellent writing skills and computer knowledge. Must have a good driving record and be able to transport 30 lbs.

Project Assistant - Word Processor – Ripon or San Ramon Offices

Education/Experience Necessary: Prefer a candidate with at least 2 years of administrative experience working in a professional services environment. Have extensive knowledge of MS Office products, especially Word. College degree preferred.

Position Summary: This new position will be responsible for formatting, editing, reports. Incorporating tables, graphs and figures into text documents. Must be a team player, have a high level of accuracy, play close attention to detail and be able to work well under time constraints.

Join Us - The future is bright at ENGEO! We are very proactive with recruiting and are always looking for great people whether or not we are hiring! We encourage you to send us a resume and cover letter even if you do not see a specific position or location listed. We look forward to reviewing your information. ENGEO is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Please email (preferred), mail or fax resumes and cover letters to:

Human Resources
ENGEO Incorporated
2010 Crow Canyon Place, Suite 250
San Ramon, CA 94583-4634
Tel: (925) 866-9000
Fax: (888) 279-2698
Email: hr@engeo.com
